561 Bridgeway is an 8-unit historical building located on the world famous waterfront boulevard, known by locals and international visitors as offering one of the most scenic vistas in the world. Located in the heart of downtown Sausalito's retail and restaurant corridor and features some of the best restaurants, art galleries, wine tasting and shopping in Marin. The Golden Gate Bridge and San Francisco is only a few minute drive from the property. During early Spring through the Fall the city is filled with visitors from around the world.

The property has a desirable mix of 1 bedroom, studio apartments and commercial space. Many units feature dramatic views of the Bay and San Francisco. Period architectural details include unique window designs, large double hung windows and high ceilings on both the main and second levels. Built in 1897, the property once served as Sausalito's City Hall. This is a rare opportunity for investors or an owner who desires their own pied-a-terre along the Sausalito waterfront.
